

Brothers James John and George Weir are also on the Smithills Hall Chapel Memorial under "Those who Fought and Survived." James John enlisted on 30 October 1915 in Bolton in the Army Service Corps (Motor Transport) aged 23, having in 1911 been an apprentice motorman He was single. George enlisted in Bolton in December 1916 at the age of 19 years with the Royal Engineers. He had been working as an apprentice joiner in 1911.